

BENEFITS OF BEING AN EOD SOLDIER

Real world peace time & war time missions

Demolition Pay

Special Duty Assignment Pay

Top Secret Security Clearance – All Soldiers

World-Wide Duty Assignments / Missions

Advanced Specialized Training

Marketable Job Skill

Inter-service & Inter-agency Training Opp.

TACTICAL

WARRIORS

EOD'S MISSION

To provide support to unified land operations by detecting, locating, identifying, diagnosing, rendering safe, exploiting, and disposing of all explosive ordnance, improvised explosive devices, improvised/homemade explosives, and weapons of mass destruction.

CONTACT 430TH EOD TODAY.

SFC Kevin Chancey \\ 984.661.6701
kevin.m.chancey.mil@mail.mil

SGT Michael Broden \\ 984.661.6709
michael.c.broden.mil@mail.mil

iGUARDNC.com

TRAINING PATH TO EOD

- PHASE I - Fort Lee
7 weeks (Preparation Course)
- PHASE II - Eglin Air Force Base
34 weeks (Intensified Course)

JOB DUTIES

- Research and identify ordnance
- Assist in the preparation and use of advanced robotics
- Render Safe and/or dispose of hazardous devices, materials or ordnance
- Prepare and maintain tools, equipment and vehicles

REQUIREMENTS FOR EOD

E5 (P) RANK AND BELOW

GM SCORE OF 105

NORMAL COLOR VISION

PHYSICAL PROFILE 111121

MUST VOLUNTEER FOR EOD

COMPLETE INTERVIEW, ACFT, & BOMB SUIT SUITABILITY TEST

DO YOU HAVE NERVES OF STEEL?

BECOME A TACTICAL AND TECHNICAL EXPLOSIVE EXPERT

Explosive ordnance disposal specialist soldiers are the Army National Guard's preeminent tactical and technical explosive experts. They are warriors who are trained, equipped and integrated to attack, defeat and exploit unexploded ordnance, improvised explosive devices and weapons of mass destruction.