

NORTH CAROLINA

ARMY NATIONAL GUARD

EXPLOSIVE ORDNANCE DISPOSAL

EXPLOSIVE ORDNANCE DISPOSAL (EOD) specialist soldiers are the Army National Guard's preeminent tactical and technical explosive experts. They are warriors who are trained, equipped and integrated to attack, defeat and exploit unexploded ordnance, improvised explosive devices and weapons of mass destruction.

MISSION - To provide support to unified land operations by detecting, locating, identifying, diagnosing, rendering safe, exploiting, and disposing of all explosive ordnance, improvised explosive devices, improvised/homemade explosives, and weapons of mass destruction.

EOD TRAINING PATH

- ▶ PHASE I - Fort Gregg-Adams 7 weeks (Preparation Course)
- ▶ PHASE II - Eglin Air Force Base 26 weeks (Intensified Course)

JOB DUTIES

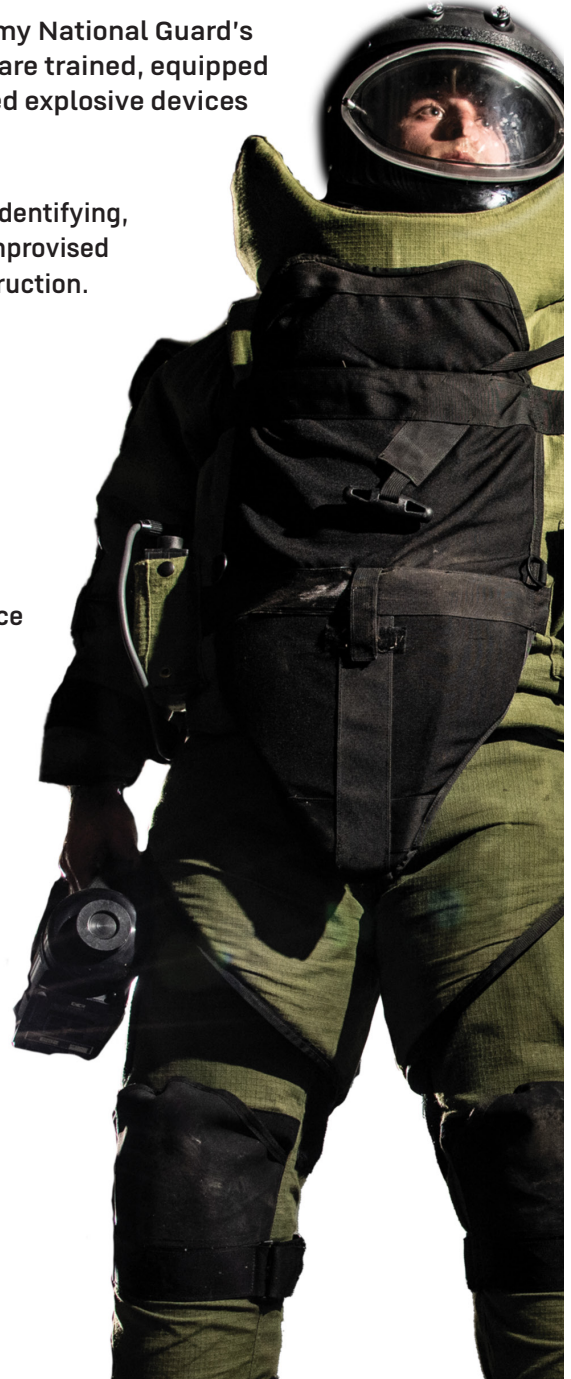

- ▶ Research and identify ordnance
- ▶ Assist in the preparation and use of advanced robotics
- ▶ Render Safe and/or dispose of hazardous devices, materials or ordnance
- ▶ Prepare and maintain tools, equipment and vehicles

REQUIREMENTS FOR EOD

- ▶ E5 (P) rank and below
- ▶ GM score of 105
- ▶ Normal Color Vision
- ▶ Physical Profile 111121
- ▶ Must Volunteer for EOD
- ▶ Complete interview, ACFT and Bomb suit suitability test.

EOD SOLDIER BENEFITS

- ▶ Real world peace time & war time missions
- ▶ Demolition Pay
- ▶ Special Duty Assignment Pay
- ▶ Top Secret Security Clearance – All Soldiers
- ▶ World-Wide Duty Assignments / Missions
- ▶ Advanced Specialized Training
- ▶ Marketable Job Skill
- ▶ Inter-service & Inter-agency Training Opp.

IGUARDNC.COM | 1-800-GO-GUARD